

Mastek Attains AWS Well-Architected Partner Status

Mumbai, India, 16th December, 2024: Mastek (NSE: MASTEK; BSE: 523704), a trusted digital engineering and cloud transformation partner, today announced it has achieved the AWS Well-Architected Partner Status. This partnership status reinforces Mastek's ongoing commitment to deliver optimal business outcomes for its clients by optimizing AWS architectures for efficiency, scalability, resilience, and cost savings.

The AWS Well-Architected Framework provides essential guidance for building secure, high-performing, and efficient cloud systems. It helps cloud architects evaluate their designs against five key pillars: Operational Excellence, Security, Reliability, Performance Efficiency, Cost Optimization, and Sustainability. By leveraging this framework, Mastek empowers clients to assess their cloud environments, make informed decisions that drive innovation in today's dynamic digital landscape.

"I'm thrilled to announce that, with our new AWS Well-Architected Partner status, Mastek is now even better positioned to scale our efforts in helping clients architect, re-architect, and optimize their cloud environments. By leveraging the AWS Well-Architected Framework, we've enhanced our ability to provide expert guidance, enabling clients to strike the right balance between innovation, cost, and performance when building on AWS" said Raman Sapra, President & Chief Growth Officer at Mastek. "This recognition places Mastek among AWS's select partners' list with AWS Well-Architected Partner status."
