

Mastek Appoints Umang Nahata as CEO

Mumbai, India, 16th January 2025: Mastek (NSE: MASTEK; BSE: 523704), a trusted digital engineering and cloud transformation partner, today announced the appointment of Mr. Umang Nahata as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, effective immediately. This decision reflects the Board's confidence in Umang's leadership and vision to lead the organization into its next phase of innovation and growth.

Umang, the founder and former CEO of Evosys, successfully led its growth into a leading Oracle Cloud Partner before its acquisition by Mastek in 2020. In his executive role at Mastek, he continued to lead the Oracle practice globally and later its overall North America business. He was appointed as a Director on the Board of Mastek Limited in 2023 and since then has contributed to organization's strategy and growth objectives.

"I am truly honored to take on this role and lead Mastek, a company trusted by its clients globally to deliver cutting edge solutions and add value to their business. We will continue to prioritize our strategic growth pillars, accelerate our AI-first approach, and deliver solutions impacting business to our clients. We will continue to strengthen the employee first culture of the organization" said Umang Nahata, CEO, Mastek.

Ashank Desai, Founder & Chairman, Mastek commented, "Umang's strategic insight and unwavering focus on customer success make him uniquely qualified to lead Mastek's transformation. His leadership will be instrumental in achieving our global ambitions. Under Umang's leadership, Mastek will continue to strengthen its digital, cloud and data capabilities and drive AI-powered innovations across all our services."
